DUO NONA

Adventurous and engaging, DUO NONA puts a fascinating twist on the rarely heard combination of cello and bass by introducing new compositions and arrangements infused with an eclectic mix of music elements ranging from Classical, Jazz, Latin, Folk and Rock.

Sought after for her rich tone and meaningful interpretations, Nadine Trudel is currently performing as Principal cellist of the Sarasota Opera and with the Sarasota Orchestra. A native of Montréal, Québec, Nadine attended the Conservatoire de Musique de Montréal and has performed with several nationally recognized orchestras.

Gil Katz has performed with various symphony orchestras around the United States. Currently, Katz is Principal double bass with the Sarasota Opera and the Utah Festival Opera.

For this performance, Duo Nona will offer a diverse and engaging program of pieces by composers such as Debussy, Couperin, and Ginastera, as well as a few of their own.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9, 2018

A SERVICE OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

Our annual presentation of the Nine Lessons and Carols (a special music service that originated in England in the late 19th century) continues, featuring music for the Advent and Christmas season. The Siesta Key Chapel Choir will present traditional carols and anthems, accompanied by strings and our Schantz pipe organ. The carols are interspersed with the traditional nine lessons, read by members of the congregation.

PALM SUNDAY PRESENTATION

The Chapel Choir and a chamber orchestra will present music for Palm Sunday. The journey of Christ to the cross in the final weeks of his earthly ministry is the most poignant of all journeys.

This presentation will feature Lenten and Holy Week anthems and congregational hymns with readings from the Passion Gospels.
